CANTERBURY PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS
THE ULTIMATE DOO WOP SHOW

July 2011 Newsletter

HURRICANE HENRY HITS THE MIDWEST AND ROCKS THE STAR PLAZA

by Lou Holly

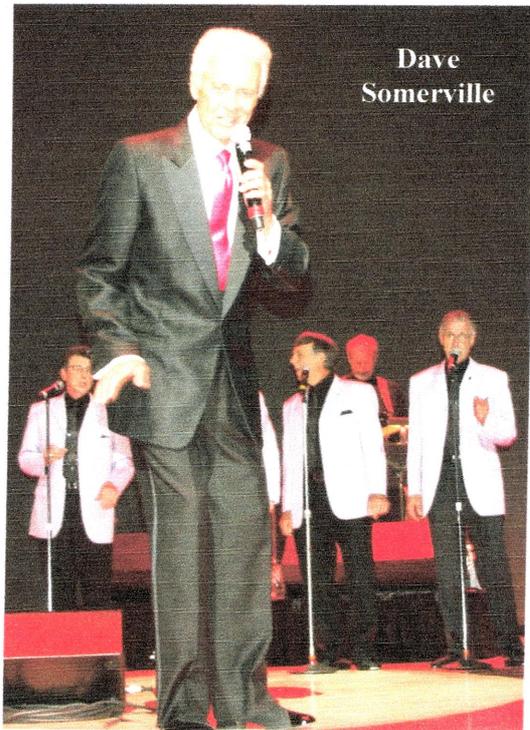

Henry Farag of Canterbury Productions, the leader in Doo Wop concerts in the U.S.A., wowed the crowd once again May 14th at the Star Plaza Theater in Merrillville, Indiana. You could feel a high level of excitement in the air at the Star Plaza as Henry Farag's vocal group Stormy Weather along with The Blue Suede Orchestra warmed up the audience who were upright in their seats all night long. The Volumes with original lead singer Eddie Union set the stage for a night packed with fulfilled promises. George Galfo and The Mystics followed up with their wonderful smooth brand of Doo Wop. The Reflections and original lead vocalist Tony Micalc closed the first half of the show and thrilled the audience with 'Just Like Romeo & Juliet' and other great tunes. 'Diamond Dave' Somerville kicked off the second half of the show with Deke & The Blazers filling in on Diamonds background vocals.

Dave went through a number of The Diamonds hit songs and told funny and touching stories of his days when he toured with Buddy Holly and other Rock & Roll immortals. The very youthful Dee Dee Kenniebrew, legendary original member of The Crystals, followed up next. Dee Dee's background singers equally impressed the crowd with their solo turns!

After everything died down a spontaneous acappella sing-a-long broke out in the lobby with Dave Somerville, Deke & The Blazers and two of The Mystics. A precious moment in time for everyone on hand fortunate enough to experience a wonderful end to another fabulous night thanks to Henry Farag. www.canterburyproductions.com
